Note regarding the processing of your personal data:

The Fritz Thyssen Stiftung takes the protection of your personal data very seriously. We would therefore like to notify you whether and which of your data we process. Our obligation pursuant hereto emanates above all from the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Personal data is deemed to mean all information that relates to an identified or identifiable natural person. Personal data therefore includes for example your name, the address where you reside, your gender, your date of birth, your age, your telephone number, your e-mail address or your IP address. This list is not exhaustive and is merely intended to indicate to you what may fall under the rubric of personal data.

Within the framework of the application, we only request that data, and in particular that personal data, from you which is necessary for the processing of, and deciding on, your application and possibly its approval under Art. 5, Art. 6, section 1, subsection 1, letter b) of the General Data Protection Regulation. We store your personal data on a permanent basis - regardless of whether the application is approved or not.

Applications for stipends are assessed by experts in accordance with the usual standards of scholarship, research and science. It is only in this manner that the Foundation can review and ensure that the research project is indeed eligible for support in the meaning of Art. 3 of the Foundation's Statutes.

That is why it is necessary under Art. 5, Art. 6, section 1, subsection 1, letter b), Art. 49, section 1, subsection 1 b) of the General Data Protection Regulation that we provide your application including personal data emanating from your application to the members of the Foundation's institutions and/or to external appraisers that may reside in Germany, the EU/EEZ and in countries outside the EU (third countries). These persons are subject to applicable data protection regulations.

Please note that we shall not process your application or have it assessed if you do not provide us with your personal data. The Foundation moreover reserves the right to report on projects approved for support both in its annual report as well as on its website. These forms of publication are not associated with any assessments..

In charge of data processing:
Fritz Thyssen Stiftung, Apostelnkloster 13-15, 50672 Köln

Contact data of the Data Protection Officer at the office in charge:
Dr. Thomas Suermann, Fritz Thyssen Stiftung, Apostelnkloster 13-15, 50672 Köln

The Data Protection Officer will of course be glad to provide you with information on your rights as a data subject (e.g. revocation, information, correction, deletion, restriction of processing, notification, objection, data portability).

Inter alia the North Rhine-Westphalian Commissioner for Data Protection and Information Freedom is responsible for complaints relating to our processing of your personal data.

We attest to the accuracy of the preceding information and agree to inform the Fritz Thyssen Stiftung immediately of any changes to this information.
